The members of the Sioux City Growth Organization (SCGO) have elected Beth Trejo as the organization's 2010 president. Trejo works at The Siouxland Chamber of Commerce.

Also elected to board positions for the new year is: Kevin Molland, De De Beverage, Vice President; Christie Finnegan, St. Luke's Health System, Treasurer; Dawn Draube, Mills-Shellhammer-Puetz Insurance, Secretary; and Directors Beau Braunger, United Commercial Real Estate; Ragen Cote, Western Iowa Tech Community College; Jonalee Jackes, United Way of Siouxland; Jason Klemme, Howard R. Green Company; and Jon Murad, Iowa Workforce Development.

SCGO was founded in 2002 to encourage young professionals to become active members of the community. The group encourages progressive and innovative ideas to make Sioux City a more appealing place to live and work. Since its start, SCGO has sponsored a number of events aimed at promoting Siouxland to young adults.

SCGO has about 80 members and 40 prospect members. For more information on the young professionals' organization, visit their website at www.siouxcitygo.com.
